Flashheart.de - The essence of gaming

Hi,

it's great that you found us. This website is non-commercial and purely private.

Everything you find on this website is meant to be copied or used as a template for Your own work. We are working on Paintball / Airsoft / Nerf gamingsystems. You are encouraged to build something on your own according to the material provided here.

You can copy the software, access the source code, everything. It is my expressed wish to build up a group of interested people, that work together in order to create new game ideas, to learn and to have fun.
